Beatrix Potter

Author and Illustrator

Growing up in Victorian London, Beatrix Potter loved to sketch the pet animals that she kept in her home schoolroom.

Combined with a natural talent for storytelling and bursting with ideas, Beatrix later secured a publishing deal with Frederick Warne, producing on average two books every year.

After moving to the Lake District, Beatrix married and turned to farming and land preservation. Her legacy however will always be her books, having sold millions of copies globally.

Soft Toys

Charity Plush

Enesco has partnered with Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity to create this bespoke Peter Rabbit soft toy. All the money we raise goes towards supporting GOSH patients and their families, buying the latest medical equipment, helping rebuild and refurbish the hospital, and supporting world class medical research. £1.66 for every Large Peter Rabbit sold and £1.00 for every Small will be given by Enesco and Frederick Warne & Co. Ltd collectively to Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity (Registered charity no. 1160024).

The Great Ormond Street Peter Rabbit Soft Toys have been created using original artwork inspired by the drawings of patients who took part in the hospital's arts programme; Go Create, designers have created a very special and completely bespoke fabric especially for the products — featuring carrots and flowers — to decorate Peter Rabbit's ears and paws.

*These products are suitable from age 1+, hand washable and CE marked.
Please note that this piece is only sold in the UK & NI.*

Beatrix Potter by Jim Shore

Designs by Jim Shore

Jim Shore grew up in rural South Carolina, the son of artistic parents who instilled in him a love of the traditional imagery of American folk art. His grandmother was a master quilter who taught him an appreciation for the patience and skill required to bring intricate designs to life.

Jim has perfected his unique style, combining elements of folk art with a vibrant colour palette applied to traditional themes.
